

Pantego Police Department Community Service Events Report

Events for the Month of December 2010

1. On December 4, 2010 Sergeant Chad Hoya, Sergeant Barry Reeves, and Chief McKinney conducted a motorcycle escort for the Hill Elementary first (1st) grade Hill Highlanders football team. The escort went from Hill Elementary to UTA Mavericks Stadium. This game was their “super bowl” game but was called the “Carmichael Game”. The sponsor for the team was the Arlington Optimist Club.
2. On December 10, Sergeant Barry Reeves and Officer Pokey Lawrence joined efforts with Silver Leaf Resorts to provide bicycles for the children at Korner Stone Church. This is an annual event for the Pantego Police Department and Silver Leaf Resorts and we are very proud to be a part of this toy drive.
3. On December 11, 2010, Sergeant Chad Hoya, Sergeant Barry Reeves and Chief McKinney along with officers from Dal Worthington Gardens Police Department and Arlington Police Department participated in an escort for Pantego Christian Academy parents and students. The escort contained about 65 cars and each one carried bicycles and toys to Mission Arlington.
4. On December 17, 2010, Corporal Marisa McCann and Chief McKinney provided Christmas stockings, left over from the Candy Train event, to the children living in the Shady Valley, Apartment Complex, in Pantego.
5. On December 18, 2010, Corporal Marisa McCann joined Mayor Paradise and other Town staff personnel at the Wal-Mart Neighborhood Store and “rang” the bell for an excellent cause, the Salvation Army. The Mayor’s “army” raised well over $1,200.00 and they are all to be applauded for their efforts. Great Job!! (See the attached photos.)
