Residents and Business Owners of Pantego

NOTICE

The Pantego Police Department has been notified by a residential alarm company that they wish to do door to door solicitations in Pantego and the surrounding communities. This company has applied for and received our local solicitors permit for each of their employees and they each also have obtained a Texas Department of Public Safety solicitors "pocket card" in accordance with the Texas Occupations Code, chapter 1702.

Please be aware that this only permits these individuals to do business in this area and is in no way an endorsement of this company or any individuals associated with this company, by the Pantego Police Department the Town of Pantego or the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The Pantego Police Department encourages our citizens to be vigilant about inviting anyone you do not know personally, into your home. Be careful about entering into contracts and make sure you read and understand thoroughly any agreement, contract or other paperwork you are asked to sign. We also remind you to never give out your personal identification, credit card numbers, or bank account information to anyone you do not know and trust.

Please be reminded that if you are suspicious of any individual approaching you or your home, please call 911 immediately. Our officers will respond immediately.

Joel McKinney
Chief of Police
