

PANTEGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

MONTHLY CHIEF'S REPORT for October 2011

EMPLOYEES

We currently have no vacancies within the Police Department.

During the month of October, Dispatcher Kobrie Hodge and husband Brian became the proud parents of new daughter Ema Elizabeth. Ema has already visited the dispatch center a couple of times! We are all very proud for Kobrie and family, and we are happy to see our PD family growing.

Officer Stephen Meinke was promoted to the position of Corporal on October 10th and was selected through our promotional interview process. Out of the same promotional process, Officer Chad Hickey was selected to be placed on a six month eligibility list to end in April 2011, if not promoted prior to that date.

We appreciate the good work of each of our officers and that of our dispatchers. We are very proud of the "teamwork" atmosphere we enjoy and we all take pride in serving the citizens of Pantego.

TRAINING

- On October 21st, Sergeant Barry Reeves completed a 20 hour Methamphetamine Investigative Workshop. The training was provided by the Bureau of Justice Assistance U. S. Department of Justice at no cost the Town of Pantego and classes were held in Grand Prairie.
- On October 27th, Officer Chad Hickey completed 32 hours training in Crime Scene Investigations. The training is required by TCLEOSE and was held at the Arlington Police Academy.
