Residents of Pantego

NOTICE

The Pantego Police Department has been notified by the United States Census Bureau that “census takers” will be in all the neighborhoods in the United States during the next (3) months, including Pantego. Each census taker will be equipped with a hand held computer device and will be wearing official Census Bureau personal identification cards that they should produce upon request by the resident. They should only be in the neighborhoods during “daylight hours”.

This NOTICE is to advise you that if you are unsure about any individual approaching you or your residence, please call 911 immediately. Our officers will respond immediately.

Joel McKinney
Chief of Police
